SENATOR BURBACH: Certainly do.

PRESIDENT: All right. The Chair recognizes Senator Burbach.

SENATOR BURBACH: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, as I indicated several days ago, that I am in constant contact with the bill drafting office and Mr. Emory Burnett informed me this morning he could not have all the bills out today by noon, which was the request I had made of him but he indicated to me that at 4:30 p.m., this afternoon he would have all the bills available. So I do have a motion for recess, not adjournment, only for recess and that we will reconvene at 4:30 this afternoon and then you will have an opportunity to introduce those bills. So if you will get your bills ready, have them signed, we can move very rapidly and not be here very long. So I do have one other comment, and due to the nature of this letter, I would like to throw this out and read the letter. To the Speaker of the Nebraska Legislature, Speaker Burbach. If it is satisfactory and convenient to the Legislature's schedule, I would like to request that time to be reserved at 10:00 a.m., Tuesday, the 27th of January, for the presentation of my budget message and the state of the state address to the Unicameral. Signed Governor J. James Exon. So we will build this into our agenda that the Governor will come and talk to us at 10 o'clock on Tuesday, the 27th. I renew my motion...oh, excuse me.

CLERK: Mr. President, we have a Reference Report referring LB 845 through 878. Signed by members of the Reference Committee. See pages 299 and 300, Journal. Mr. President, Senator Dworak asked to be excused this afternoon. Mr. President, I move we recess until 4:30 p.m. Signed Senator Burbach.

PRESIDENT: The Clerk's have requested that any bills that you have for introduction, between now and 4:30 p.m., please turn into the Clerk's office as soon as you get them so that they can do their paper work but they will be formerly introduced at 4:30 p.m. There is a motion to recess until 4:30 this afternoon. All those in favor say aye. Contrary say nay. We are in adjournment...or recess.
